

Framingham Special Education Parent Advisory Council(F-SEPAC)

- B Y L A W S -

(adopted Spring 2007, revised May 2010)

Article I: Name of Organization

The name of this organization shall be the Framingham Special Education Parent Advisory Council, also known as F-SEPAC. F-SEPAC will be non-commercial, non-sectarian and non-partisan. The name of this organization or the name of any members in their official capacities shall not be used in any connection with a commercial concern or any partisan interest or for any purpose other than the regular work of the organization.

Article II: Purpose of the F-SEPAC

The F-SEPAC receives its regulatory authority from the Code of Massachusetts Regulations (CMR) 603 CMR 28:07 (4) under the parent involvement section. State law mandates the F-SEPAC and its duties include, but are not limited to:

- Advising the school district on matters that pertain to the education and safety of students with disabilities.
- Meeting regularly with school officials.
- Participating in the planning, development, and evaluation of the school district's special education programs.

The mission of the F-SEPAC is to work for understanding of, respect for, and support of all children with special needs in the community. To that end, F-SEPAC will work to:

Promote a network of parents of children with special needs and provide a forum to share information and discuss matters of concern and interest for children with special needs.

Advise the Director of Special Education, Superintendent of Schools, and Framingham School Committee, and others on operations of special education services, parent and teacher training needs, and other needs within the Special Education community.

Help to develop school district policy, to include providing reports/data to be integrated into the regular reports and plans sent to the Department of Education; and to review, revise and comment on such materials prior to their being finalized.

Promote communication between F-SEPAC members, local, state and national organizations, councils and groups that support children with special needs.

Promote communication and programs within the community to encourage understanding, acceptance and inclusion of children with special needs.

Provide informational forums to parents, educators, students and professionals involved with children with special needs. This will include collaboration with parent/teacher groups, school councils, PTOs, and other school organizations towards the betterment of education in the school district; and exploration of opportunities for parents and school personnel to participate in joint training to foster mutual understanding.

Promote communication and collaboration among parents, teachers, administrators and other service providers within the Special Education community.

Serve as a resource and support network for parents/guardians of children with special needs regarding procedures, educational, and non-educational issues.

Support and promote equal educational opportunities for all special needs children.

Article III: Terms of Membership

There are two types of membership, voting and general.

General membership shall be open to any resident of Framingham or person affiliated with the Framingham Public Schools. All meetings are open to the general public.

Voting membership is required in order to vote in annual officer elections and other business that comes before any F-SEPAC meeting. Voting membership shall be given to any general member who is either:

A parent or guardian of a child with special needs residing in Framingham with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or a 504 Accommodation Plan.

A student not less than fourteen (14) years of age who is on an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or a 504 Accommodation Plan from the Town of Framingham.

Meetings are defined as any F-SEPAC sponsored meeting in which the business of the F-SEPAC is conducted. This may include activities or committees at which attendance and/or minutes are taken.

Article IV: Voting and Elections

All decisions requiring a vote will be made by simple majority (50% plus one) of the voting members present. Each voting member is entitled to one (1) vote per motion. At any F-SEPAC meeting, at least five voting members must be present in order to cast a vote.

Prior to the nomination meeting, the F-SEPAC Executive Board (see Article IX) will recruit a volunteer from the voting membership of the F-SEPAC for the temporary position of Election Coordinator. The selection of the volunteer will be decided by a lottery of names of volunteers. The coordinator will not be anyone who is running for office since the person holding this position must be an impartial party. The Election Coordinator shall prepare the ballots and coordinate activities necessary to complete the election.

All voting members are eligible to make nominations at the next to last F-SEPAC meeting of the school year. Nominees shall accept or decline their nominations within one week of being notified of their nomination in order to remain on the ballot. The ballots will be made available to voting members at the last F-SEPAC meeting of the school year.

Elections shall be decided by a simple majority vote of the voting membership present at the last F-SEPAC meeting of the school year. New officers shall take office immediately following their election. It is expected that past officers will meet with their replacements and work with them for the first two months of the following school year to ensure a seamless transition.

MassPAC and the Department of Education will be informed of the annual elections with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the new board by the end of the school year. The date of elections should also be provided.

Article V: Officers and Subcommittee Chairpersons of the F-SEPAC

Officers of the F-SEPAC are elected by the voting membership and will hold office for one year. These officers shall be elected annually during the final meeting of the school year. If any office becomes vacant, an election for that office shall be held immediately, with term to expire at the last meeting of the school year.
